Dakota Southern Baptist Foundation
Report for 2003

The Foundation Trustees have met three times this year, twice in a face-to-face meeting and once by telephone conference call.

A great deal of time has been spent in trying to determine the purpose and procedures of the Foundation, especially since the Florida Baptist Convention is no longer involved in a partnership with the DSBF.

The Trustees are presenting to this Fellowship Meetings (October 2003), a new Constitution/Articles of Incorporation for consideration. Mainly the new Constitution/Articles make the Foundation a subsidiary corporation and the Trustees will be elected by the Executive Board of the DSBF, if the Fellowship approves.

In the Foundations new procedures they will be making provision for mission churches to borrow up to $15,000 for repairs, additional building space, land purchase, parking lots or furniture purchases. One loan for $15,000 was granted to Living Hope Baptist Church, Fargo, ND.

O. H. Nipper, Pierre, SD, has served as Chairman of the Trustees, Bill Savery, Custer, SD, as Secretary, Henry Kaelberer, New Salem, ND and Debbie Holmes, Virgil, SD as Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. Nipper
Chairman

DSBF
Executive Director's Report
2003

It has been a privilege and joy to serve with Dakota Baptists since November, 2002. God has been so good to bless all of us in the Dakotas with his love, guidance and results in His churches.

There are many things for Dakota Baptists to thank the Lord for:

- The growth and strengthening of our churches and missions.
- A great group of pastors who serve faithfully in their churches.
- A strong evangelism outreach in 2003.
- What will probably be our strongest year in mission giving.
- The new missions and bible studies that have been started this year.
- The wonderful opportunity to live and serve the Lord in the Dakotas.

The DSBF staff has been working very hard to plan for 2004 and beyond. They are very selective in the materials and plans that they are trying to present and promote to the churches and associations in the Dakotas.

For the first time in many months the Fellowship has an almost full complement of missionaries and workers. At the time of this report we have a pastor in all but 15 of our churches and missions.

Please feel free at any time to call on your Dakota Baptist family of missionaries and staff for any service, assistance or materials. We are always ready to serve you.

Don F. Mabry
Executive Director (Interim)

MISSIONS AND EVANGELISM REPORT

RICHARD FARLEY

Language Missions/Partnership

John Guillott

Language

The Language Missions area of Dakota Southern Baptist work consists of 16 Native American congregations across the Dakotas, a Hispanic congregation in Fargo, 2 Korean congregations located in Minot and Sioux Falls, and a South African Bible Study in Watertown.

The South African Bible Study started in July meets at Prairie Lakes Baptist Church, Watertown, under the leadership of Rev. Wayne McMillian. The Sioux Falls Korean congregation started in August meets at Sonrise Baptist Church; Rev. Hyongsik Oh of Sioux City, Iowa serves as pastor.

A Hispanic Probe for Sioux Falls is calendared for late October of this year. The Northwest Baptist Association in Arkansas is partnering with us in this effort by providing Probe leaders and resources.

We have several Native American congregations without pastors and we need to find resources and pastors to start Native American congregations in our larger cities and communities. There are tremendous challenges ahead as we seek to preach and plant the gospel among the various people groups of the Dakotas.

Partnership

We have almost completed our second year of partnership with the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. By the end of this year we will have had approximately 40 projects between Arkansas Baptists and Dakota Baptist. These projects mean that over 400 Arkansas Baptists have been involved in Vacation Bible Schools, Backyard Bible Clubs, Construction and remodeling projects, and conference leadership from state staff.

We need to be praying about what projects Dakota Baptists can do in Arkansas. Some of their churches have similar needs and we can be a partner in helping them in their ministries. If you are interested in your church "being on mission" please call and let me help you find a way to extend your ministry beyond your community and the Dakotas.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to serve as your Language Missions and Partnership Coordinator. I look forward to the "great things He (God) will do" as we serve and partner together in 2004.

CHURCH PLANTING/DISASTER RELIEF/BIVO PASTORS
LARRY VICKERY - COORDINATOR

Church Planting:

This has been a very busy year in Church Planting with new work training sessions, surveys, working on Church Planting Probes. We have also put together two manuals.

- a. Probe Update: I have met with the BHAA in a PROBE update, and at this time have six Probes scheduled for this year and next year.
- b. I have worked in the Lincoln area as we plan for a new work this fall and the spring of 2004. We worked with a team that taught a VBS in the area. A church planter is being considered for the Lincoln area.
- c. I have worked on manuals for church planting, mentoring, and a DSBF PROBE Manual. These manuals will have material compiled from the associations and staff of the DSBF.
- d. I am working with three AM's in starting new works in their association: Siouxland – Korean Work; Heartland – South African in Watertown, and a new work in Brookings; BHAA – Central Rapid
- e. I have met with numerous churches and pastors to encourage new works for 2003 and 2004.
- f. I attended a workshop in Kansas City, and led four workshops on Church Planting in the DSBF.

The Church Planting team strives to improve the training and support offered to the pastors and churches. We continue to work on a mentoring system and offer help to associations in new work and all other areas to advance the Kingdom.

Disaster Relief:

- a. Attended Round Table Training in Ashville, NC.
- b. We met our schedule of having the Feeding Unit ready to respond by the end of August 2003.
- c. Conducted training sessions for Yellow Caps, Blue Caps, and Feeding Unit in Watertown, this fall.
- d. Plans are being made to divide the DSBF into four areas with Key Volunteers in each area. This will enable us to respond quicker and have Key personnel in each area to respond.

Bivo. Pastor:

A Bivo retreat was cancelled this year due to lack of response from the bivo pastors. I am willing to help and work with the bivo pastors as they request help.

EVANGELISM
RICHARD FARLEY TEAM COORDINATOR,

The Evangelism Department has worked this year to assist associations and local churches in penetrating their geographical area with the Gospel. The majority of our work has been at the request of churches and local associations. We have assisted churches in preparing and implementing special events, revivals, personnel soul-winning, interfaith witness, and a variety of other evangelistic efforts.

MASS EVANGELISM

Assisted with the Kingdom Combine in the Local Associations.
Help with Associational Revivals.

CONFERENCES:

Assisted with teaching the NET and Share Jesus Without fear in Local Associations,
FAITH Training and Cross Training

PRAYER EVANGELISM

Charles B. Hall Coordinator

Prayer is, or should be, the “driving engine” behind everything we do in the Name of God. Only by bathing every effort – every program – every ministry in earnest, effectual, prayer can we hope to see the power of God working in our midst. It is our hope to lead and equip Dakota Southern Baptists at every level to develop a coherent, effective, prayer strategy.

In 2003 our primary emphasis has been to continue the Fellowship-wide email prayer network begun by Debra Farley. We have seen a warm fellowship growing as we have shared personal and ministry concerns across the Dakotas and seen God respond with victory and answered prayers. Everyone who has access to email is encouraged to become part of the Email Prayer-Net simply by sending a request to cbhall@rushmore.com. In 2004, working through Associational and Church Prayer Coordinators and Pastors, will be to expand the “Dakota Prayer Net” to include as many people as possible both in North and South Dakota and our ministry partners throughout America

Finally, beginning in 2004 and succeeding years, by providing training, resources and encouragement, our purpose will be to implement a three-level prayer strategy across the Dakotas. First, every Dakota Baptist will be encouraged to renew a personal passion for Christ by praying unceasingly (see Psalms 51:10; 1 Thessalonians 5:17) Second, every local church and mission will be challenged to renew and reclaim their meeting place as a “house of prayer” with a particular passion for reaching lost people (see Mark 11:17; Luke 19:10). Third, associations will be encouraged to develop an area prayer strategy focused especially on personal evangelism and planting new congregations.

It is said, “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”(1 Peter 5:5) As Dakota Southern Baptists, we desperately need the power of God in everything we do – the place to start, continue and finish is in prayer.

YOUTH EVANGELISM
JULIE BITNER COORDINATOR

My role as the Youth Evangelism Coordinator is to create and facilitate opportunities for our youth to meet Jesus and also grow in their personal relationship with Him.

Right now there are two choices for Dakota youth, Centrifuge and DiscipleNow. I am looking at ways to keep the costs of both events as reasonable as possible.

There are some exciting changes in youth ministry at DSBF! We had such a great turnout for the last DiscipleNow that we are having two next year; one in Bismarck and one in Rapid City. We are also in the process of adding a youth page to our DSBF web site. This should facilitate better access to information for everyone including lay persons and the teens themselves.

ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS
RICHARD FARLEY TEAM LEADER

The Associational Department relates to all the Church Planter Strategist/ Associational Missionary in the Dakotas. All the Associations with the Dakota Fellowship have been gone the second phases of their strategy plan. The major event in the Associations has been that the Fellowship has become field drive, as result the Fellowship response to Field Request known as FSR.

ANNUITY BOARD REPRESENTATIVES
RICHARD FARLEY AND VICKI BECKER

The Annuity Service Department provides information and assistance to all Dakota Baptist Fellowship associations, churches, and church staff personnel relating to all of the various programs offered through the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Annuity Board will have some major funding changes in 2004 as related to the DSBF.

Church Development Report

John M. Miller

Church Development is focused on developing healthy churches in the Dakotas. For that to happen, churches need to have a balance of Evangelism, Discipleship, Fellowship, Ministry and Worship.

New Resource for Dakota Churches: A manual to train new or untrained workers in Dakota churches has been needed. Don Mabry, Interim Executive Director, and I are writing materials that we call Workers for the Harvest to "Dakotize" the resource. Years ago, LifeWay produced a manual called "Potential Teachers Training" but it is out of print and outdated. Workers for the Harvest is a basic manual to be used to train all workers. It includes Chapters with the following headings:

- My Church
- Spiritual Gifts Survey
- The Baptist Faith and Message
- Get Acquainted with the Bible
- Teaching: Preschoolers, Children, Youth and Adults (separate sessions)
- How People Learn
- Teaching Skills
- Witnessing Skills
- Observing Another Teacher/Worker
- How To Prepare

It is our hope that this resource will help Dakota Churches develop trained leaders for Dakota churches.

Training Summary: The following is a summary of training events from July 2002 to June 2003 in the Dakotas that relate to the areas of Evangelism, Discipleship, Fellowship, Ministry and Worship. It is beneficial to know how many persons are in training. To help make sense of this information I will give a total and then give some breakout figures of certain types of training. The effectiveness of training that we do will show up in statistics on the Annual Church Profile report from Dakota churches.

Training: A total of 1171 persons were registered at Church Development training events in the Dakotas from July 2002 through June 2003. This computes to 28% of the resident membership of the Dakota Southern Baptist Fellowship or almost 1/3 the number of resident members.

Dakota Consultants: Eighty-eight (88) consultants were trained. This includes sixty-six (66) different people. You can see by this difference that twenty-two (22) of this group took on dual jobs.

Church Development Report - page 2

Training Summary: The following is a summary of persons attending training events in various areas of ministry:

| | |
|----------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Pastoral Ministry | 104 |
| 2. Sunday School | 101 |
| 3. Vacation Bible School | 153 |
| 4. Youth & Youth Leadership | 289 |
| 5. Stewardship | 35 |
| 6. Children & Children's Leaders | 107 |
| 7. Associational Leaders | 66 |
| 8. State Leaders Updates | 65 |
| 9. Senior Adults | 39 |
| 10. Campus Ministry | 76 |

Personal Consultations: Personal consultations remain one of the most effective ways to help pastors and church leaders. The most significant part of my work is one-on-one personal consultations. This year my presence in different churches has been limited by my work as interim pastor in two different churches.

The Church Development Strategy includes the following:

1. Partner with LifeWay Christian Resources to provide resources for Associational Sunday School team training and materials.
2. Partner with LifeWay Christian Resources to provide state consultants and materials for Associational Vacation Bible School clinics.
3. Partner with state Stewardship Consultants and LifeWay Christian Resources to provide state stewardship consultants.
4. Provide state Natural Church Development consultants.
5. Partner with Partnership States to provide Collegiate Ministry leaders and consultants.
6. Partner with LifeWay Christian Resources to provide Children's Ministry consultants.
7. Partner with LifeWay Christian Resources and Partnership States to provide Pastoral Ministry consultants (Pastors, Deacons, and Church Staff).
8. Partner with Partnership States and LifeWay Christian Resources to provide consultants for area EKG (Empowered Kingdom Growth) meetings as requested by associations.
9. Partner with LifeWay Christian Resources to provide FAITH (Sunday School Evangelism) training for Pastors and Sunday School leaders.
10. Partner with LifeWay Christian Resources to provide materials to help churches with ministry and training.

Dakota WMU Report

We collected a total of $14,182.29 for the Baker Missions Offering for 2002. This money is distributed by request to meet as many needs as we can in the Dakotas.

The 2002 WMU Dakota Missions Celebration was held in Fargo, ND, October 16-17. During this time, we held the annual Baker Missions Luncheon. We enjoy hearing the testimonies of some of those who have been recipients of the offering and how it was used. Ron and Darlene Sahr received the first Tatanka Award during the Luncheon. This award goes to the recipient chosen following the guidelines.

Board Meeting of WMU, SBC was held in January in Birmingham, AL. Our new state WMU president, Cheryl Anderson, attended orientation for new presidents and served as a vice president of the national executive board during this time. We attended the WMU, SBC Annual Meeting in Phoenix, AZ, in June 2003.

Dakota WMU Council met February 16-18, 2002 in Bismarck for a time of planning and fellowship.

March 6-18, 2003, Holly Lindsey, Diane Bricker, Ellie Lee Marson, went to the Ukraine to teach women how to use cooking as a ministry outreach opportunity in their churches. The trip was enjoyable and successful, and a lot of the women in the Ukraine that attended were going to take the ideas and also use them to minister in their neighborhoods.

On May 9 and 10, Dakota WMU sponsored the Native American Women's Retreat at Eagles Wing Baptist Church in Agency Village, SD. This was their second retreat, with a total of 13 in attendance this year. Pam Hill spoke on diabetes. Another retreat is planned for next year at First Baptist Church in Eagle Butte, SD, with Alpha Goombi as special guest.

RefresHer was held September 12-14, 2003 in Richardton, ND. The weekend was well attended. We had a birthday party celebrating 90 years of GA's. The weekend was a good time of fellowship, worship, and seeing how God puts things together to work according to His plan and purpose. Larry Vickery brought the disaster relief trailer on Saturday, so that the women could see the new trailer that some of the Baker Offering had helped to purchase.

Respectfully Submitted,
Cheryl Anderson
Dakota WMU President

DSBF
Dakota Connection Report

The Dakota Connection is edited by the Executive Director and developed by the Assistant Editor, Janet (Pfeiffer) Plank. It will likely be published ten times in 2003, due to financial concerns.

Presently, the Dakota Connection is using the Louisiana Baptist Message as our printer and distributor. Each issue costs about $600.00 to $700.00 and this low cost is made possible by the generous services of the Louisiana Baptist Message. If the paper was printed and distributed by a Dakota company the cost would likely be $2,000.00 per issue.

Thanks are eternal to Janet (Pfeiffer) Plank (recently married to Lester Plank) for putting the paper together each month and for serving as the webmaster for the DSBF website.

Please visit the website www.dsbfb.org often to keep up with matters, announcements and information on Dakota Baptists. At this Annual Meeting the DSBF Executive Board is recommending a new subscription plan for the Dakota Connection and if it is adopted then this new plan will begin January 1, 2004.
