Session I

DBC President, Vel Hightower welcomed everyone and read letters from the Alabama State Convention and California Southern Baptist Convention. Both conventions sent their greetings and prayers.

Vel Hightower called the 21st Annual Meeting to order at 6:05pm. (1st as a Convention but 20 others as a Fellowship)

Seating of Messengers: James (Budg) Riekeman of the Credentials Committee brought the recommendation to seat all those messengers (58) that have registered at this time. Motion passed.

There were some churches that were not allowed to seat messengers (these had been contacted prior to this meeting) and Vel stated that this was a reminder for us all to be more faithful to the constitution and be diligent with our reports and offerings. He also stated that as Chairman, if a person who was not allowed to be seated desired, he would allow them to speak but not to vote. Business needs to be conducted in the spirit of Christ and not addressed to individuals. If there were any additional motions to be added under new business tomorrow, the written motion(s) need to be given to the reporting clerk tonight. This would assist in time allocation tomorrow.

Adoption of the Order of Business: There was no response to the request for any discussion concerning the Order of Business. Motion to approve the order of business. Motion passed.

Dr. Jim Hamilton expounded on the theme interpretation of Acts 1:8 – Empowerment. We should allow the power that God has given us to be explosive. It should not take 40 – 85 people to win one person to Christ.

Bruce Knight, Cross Roads Baptist Church, Minot delivered the opening prayer.

New Business: 1) The budget, printed on the pink sheets in the book of reports, needs to be reviewed before voting on during tomorrow's session, 2) Resolutions – need to be in written form and given to recording secretary tonight.

Worship / praise songs were lead by Scott Grimm with special music provided by Abigail Hamilton.

President Hightower's Address: (Passage John 10:11-14)

The message spoke to being Under Shepard's to the Great Shepard. He spoke to the pastors about taking the risks necessary to stick it out when things get tough. Must have a heart for your sheep – compassion for the people and embrace the location. Make the Dakotas home. Become a "passionary" -- a pastor and missionary filled with compassion all rolled into one.

Recognition of New Pastors and DBC Staff:

Staff: Donna Guillott, John Guillott, John Miller, Myron Grueneich, Larry Vickery

Association Missionaries: Buck Hill, Jim Pratt, Garvon Golden

New pastors: 10 new pastors were introduced – not all were able to attend.

Dr. White shared information associated with Empowering Kingdom Growth, revival, and baptism growth. He highlighted several qualities of healthy churches: 1) singleness of heart – Unity, 2) filled with the Holy Spirit – don't be afraid to give credit to the Holy Spirit for the power that you are given, 3) steadfast commitment to preaching the Word / the Gospel, 4) stewardship – cheerfully, and 5) praising God – compel the lost to come in so that they can be reached through the Gospel. Get back to the basics of the early church – an Acts church.

Vel invited everyone for breakfast the next morning. There were refreshments available for fellowship time at the conclusion of Session I. Session I adjourned at 8:42pm.

There will also be a second line of VBS materials each summer – the 2nd line being more in the club type materials. The main VBS theme is Ramblin Road Trip and the club is Beach Blast. Encouraged people to share what works and what does not – changes can and are made from information received from the churches. Thank you for purchasing from LifeWay.

GuideStone Financial Resources – Don McLeod gave all a free book on Philemon. GuideStone is the new name for the Annuity Board. They are there to help provide Protection and Survivor benefits. Prayer for the World was led by John Wisinger.

Program Presenters:

WMU—Janet Hoffman, WMU President, thanked the DBC churches for sending our top ladies to serve. SBC Executive Committee – Will Hall, shared that he was part of the professional staff who plans and manages the SBC annual meeting, the Baptist Press, and SBC life. They have the responsibility of interpreting SBC beliefs and doctrines to the world and sometimes even Southern Baptists. They stress the cooperation between Baptists. We are to remember the call – the call from God.

Bill Savery delivered the closing prayer from Daniel 9.

Dismissed at 12:40pm for lunch.

Session III Friday 2:00pm

Lon Cockerill opened the session with prayer. He also shared a very rewarding experience – the reading of the Bible in 70 hours, read by many readers.

Dr. Hamilton shared the last theme interpretation, “Embracement”. It is not about the geography but rather the mentality of how we / our churches are going to embrace reaching out.

New Business: Luke Bell would like to see the deacons establish a group to address the responsibilities they have to the pastors and the churches.

Resolution committee (Dude Garrett) presented Resolution #6 as a motion:

Whereas Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary established a seminary extension campus in Rapid City, SD, utilizing the facilities of a non-Southern Baptist Convention church and the services of a non-Southern Baptist president; and

Whereas Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary acted outside established protocols that govern fraternal cooperation between Southern Baptist Convention entities by neglecting to coordinate this initiative with The Dakota Baptist Convention;

Therefore, be it resolved that The Dakota Baptist Convention in annual session expresses our disappointment over the failure of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary to work with our convention to establish theological education in the Dakotas;

That Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary actions undermine our effort to establish a strong Southern Baptist presence in an emerging region of our nation;

That under these circumstances at this time we cannot support this Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary effort;

That our Executive Director, Dr. James Hamilton act at his discretion to communicate our concerns to Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary staff, trustees, and the SBC Executive Committee.

Discussion: Dr. Hamilton shared that protocol has not been followed, and also that Cooperative Program funds which help support the Seminary are being used outside a Southern Baptist sponsored entity.

Having an extension is okay but the real dream of the convention is to have a DBC college. This resolution will give Dr. Jim more authority to address this issue. Stan Bricker, Spearfish, SD, stated that there is a member of their congregation that is currently attending this extension and he hopes that this will not cause conflict. He hopes it can be resolved in a nice manner.

Garvon Golden called for the question. This motion is to stop the discussion. Motion to cease passed.

The vote on the resolution was taken. Resolution motion passed.

Adoption of Budget: Larry Thompson of the Finance Committee moved for the adoption of the budget as presented.

Discussion: Dr. Jim wanted to apologize to the DBC for not providing this type of information. This is a unified budget not compartmentalized. The DBC will actually have a smaller budget for operations but will be working to get more money into the churches and associations. Motion passed.

Election of Officers:

Convention President: Bill Savery nominated Vel Hightower. John Sneed seconded. Rob Grimm moved that nominations cease. Luke Bell seconded. Nominations ceased. Vote – Vel Hightower is the President.

Convention Vice President: Dude Garrett nominated Morgan Medford. Budg Rickeman seconded. Bob Pittman moved that nomination cease. Janet Angell seconded. Nominations ceased. Vote – Morgan Medford is the Vice President.

Larry and Lillian Vickery were recognized for their years of service to the Fellowship / Convention. They were given a gift card. John Guillott led in prayer while the many friends gathered around Larry and Lillian.

Recognized the churches for their cooperative giving. Dr. Jim understands how hard it is to pay the cooperative portion when you are struggling. 14% of the cooperative funds received by the convention goes to the SBC.

Top three (3) churches in Total Cooperative Program giving:

1. First Baptist Church, Williston, ND
2. First Southern Baptist Church, Sioux Falls, SD
3. Grace Baptist Church, Vermillion, SD

Top three (3) churches in Per Capita in

Executive Director's Message: Dr. James Hamilton

Dr. Jim thanked Scott Grimm for leading us in inspirational worship / praise music and special music. Dr. Jim thanked Vel Hightower for a tremendous job leading our Annual session. He has been like a father figure leading us.

Dr. Jim's message "Crossing This Jordan: Getting God's Best" – God's best for our homes, churches and associations. We must cross the river before we can get to the Promise Land. Highlights were:

1. New Day --- we need to look ahead. We need to move ahead.
2. New Opportunity – we need to accept our calling. We need to accept the plan.
3. New Commitment – requires faith, courage, leadership, fellowship, obedience and teamwork.

As we face the challenge of making the journey across the river, we will need to deal with the past, decide to go forward, dwell on God's promises and depend on God's help.

Dismissed and adjourned at 4:35pm

Dakota Baptist Foundation
P.O. Box 6028
Bismarck, North Dakota 58506

Dear Board Members:

Thank you for the opportunity to audit the financial records of the Dakota Baptist Foundation (DBF) and Church Loan Fund for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

Although the Church Loan Fund is considered a part of the Foundation financial system and the Fund is administered by the Foundation Board, the Balance Sheets of the Foundation and the Church Loan Fund have been presented separately to better show the results of operations. Future statements should show a combined Balance Sheet for both the Foundation and the Church Loan Fund.

The last known audit of the DBF was done by Scott Holt, Accounting Director, Florida Baptist Convention for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1999. During the next five years staff leadership for DBCF changed several times. These changes included several DBC Executive Directors, several bookkeepers as well as a change in the software used for the accounting system. These changes, along with misappropriation of funds by a staff member made it difficult to track and trace the various transactions throughout this time period. However, Mrs. June Highlan, an experienced bookkeeper with tremendous knowledge of ACS financial software and Convention accounting practices was contracted by DBC to bring the transactions of DBF up to date. Her work culminated in a report to the DBF board on April 8, 2005 which listed eleven recommendations.

I have reviewed Mrs. Highlan's work thoroughly and have incorporated her recommendations into the Balance Sheets of the DBF and Church Loan fund. Because of the complexity and interrelatedness of some of the transactions between DBF, DBC and the Church Loan Fund caused by the misappropriation of funds, a Statement of Activities has not been included for either DCF or the Church Loan Fund. However, future financial statements should include a Statement of Activities which details investment income, loan income, contributions or gifts and any expenses related to DCF or Church Loan Fund.

The scope of my audit included examining the accounting records of the Dakota Baptist Foundation and Church Loan Fund for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 to determine the accuracy and efficiency of the accounting/financial system and whether any deficiency of internal controls exists. I also examined limited transactions documentation for the years ended 2001, 2002 and 2003.

Because I am not a Certified Public Accountant, I cannot express an official opinion on these financial statements. However, I believe the Balance Sheets presented fairly reflect the results of cash transactions for the Dakota Baptist Foundation for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004.

DAKOTA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE A – NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The Dakota Baptist Foundation (Foundation) is a not-for-profit organization which receives, manages and administers gifts for Baptist causes from individuals and entities and establishes permanent endowment and trust funds to perpetuate a Christian witness. The Foundation also operates a church loan program which assists Southern Baptist churches in the purchase of new church sites, repairs to an existing building, small additions, furnishings or parking lots.

NOTE B – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

These Balance Sheets have been presented substantially on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements except for amounts owed to or from related entities. Operating funds consist of expendable funds that are available for support of the Foundation's activities. Temporarily Restricted Funds are trust funds that substantially benefit the donor or other Baptist related organizations.

Income Taxes

The Dakota Baptist Foundation is a nonprofit organization for the purpose of receiving and distributing charitable donations. The Foundation is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501 (C) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOTE B – DUE FROM DAKOTA BAPTIST CONVENTION

Amounts paid on behalf of the Dakota Baptist Convention by the Foundation were identified by June Highlan in a report to the Board in April 2005, Exhibit D in the amount of $18,128.33. Additional expenditures made on behalf of Richard Farley were identified in that same report, Exhibit C, in the amount of $7,995.19. These amounts are combined on the Balance Sheet as a receivable from the Dakota Baptist Convention because a petition will be made to recover these amounts from the Convention.

NOTE C – DUE TO/FROM DAKOTA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

During 2002 $109,500 were withdrawn from the Foundation savings account, but were not deposited in the Foundation checking or other investment accounts. Instead, the funds were deposited into the Dakota Baptist Convention general budget account as detailed in Exhibit 5 of June Highlan's analysis. Because of a lack of cash in the Dakota Baptist Convention, the Board adopted Recommendation 4 in April 2005 that seeks to restore those funds from the Church Loan Fund. Accordingly, a Due from Church Loan Fund in the Foundation Balance Sheet and a Due to Foundation in the Church Loan Fund Balance Sheet in the amount of $109,500 has been posted.

DAKOTA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

NOTE D – NOTES RECEIVABLE – NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH

In August 2003, the Board voted to write off the balance of the loan to New Hope Baptist Church, Aberdeen because the church had ceased to exist. However, the loan was never written off the books of the Church Loan Fund. Recently, a group has begun a new start and has begun using the building. Subsequent to the Balance Sheet date, the Board voted in April 2005 to permit the new congregation to submit a statement of the expenditures incurred in refurbishing the building and grounds and that that amount should be deducted from the loan balance. The Board also voted that the adjusted amount would be repaid by the church at the current prime rate. Therefore, the balance of the loan remains on the books at December 31, 2004.

Dear Board Members:

Thank you for the opportunity to audit the financial records of the Dakota Baptist Foundation (DBF) for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. I would like to offer a special word of appreciation to Dr. Jim Hamilton, Mrs. June Highlan and other DBC staff that provided me information and documentation with which to complete the audit.

As with any accounting system, improvements can be made to the policies, procedures and processes that are followed. Small organizations have a special challenge to provide enough separation of duties to have an adequate system of internal control. Listed below are suggestions that will improve the financial system of DBF.

1. I recommend that a policy and procedures manual should be proposed by the administration of DBC and be approved by the Board that outlines how receipts, disbursements and reporting will be done. In addition procedures should be detailed for the processing of church loans and grants. This step will hold the financial system to a standard that everyone understands and to which everyone agrees.
2. When examining documentation related to the Foundation accounting system, documents seemed to be scattered throughout Convention offices. I recommend that all documents related to the Foundation be consolidated in one place or office and organized so that research on accounting transactions can be easily accomplished.
3. In September 2003 the Foundation Board considered a new Articles of Incorporation/Constitution document and an Operating Procedures document. In light of the financial realities recently revealed to the Board, I recommend that Board review those documents to be sure they reflect the desires of the Board.

The adoption of the above recommendations will serve to strengthen further the financial processes of the Dakota Baptist Foundation.

Steve Baumgardner

MINUTES
DAKOTA BAPTIST CONVENTION FOUNDATION
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
APRIL 8, 2005

The meeting held at a conference room at the Comfort Inn in Rapid City was opened with prayer led by Jim Hamilton. Present for the meeting were: Henry Kaelberer, Bill Savery, Debbie Holmes, Jim Hamilton and June Highlan with Bruce Knight participating through video conferencing.

Each person received a binder which included the following:

1. A review of the reports and balances as managed and reported from 2002 – 2004.
2. Review of the Savings Accounts held by the Foundation and Church Loans from 2002 – 2004 and the activity and transactions within those accounts.
3. Church Loans from 2002-2004 as re-entered.
4. Foundation from 2002-2004 as re-entered.
5. Items for Review
6. Activity in Church Loans & Foundation Jan-Mar, 2005.

After an introduction by Jim Hamilton, June Highlan who is employed by the Dakota Baptist Convention as bookkeeper reviewed the contents of the binder. Highlan had analyzed the activity of the Foundation from 1999 thru 2004, and had decided that because of what was revealed that it was best to re-enter 2002, 2003 and 2004. After the documentation presented was examined in detail, the following recommendations were adopted:

CHURCH LOANS:

1. Henry Kaelberer moved that the amount of expenses over income of $34, 893.12 for the period 1/1/2002 to 12/31/2004 as detailed in Exhibit 6, be posted to the Restricted Loan Fund Balance. These expenses were Dakota Baptist Convention expenses which were paid from Church Loan funds. Bill Savery seconded the motion and it was approved.
2. It was motioned by Debbie Holmes and seconded by Bruce Knight to combine the two (2) Loan Fund Balance Accounts [50-3510] & [50-3550] into Account [50-3510, Restricted Loan Fund Balance and to write off $37.50 in Accounts Payable [50-2500] which had appeared on the books since 1999. Motion passed.
3. Bruce Knight moved that the Dakota Baptist Foundation be paid $109,500.00 from Church Loan Restricted Funds to recover funds withdrawn by the Dakota Baptist Convention. As reviewed in the activity examined by the committee in 2002, $109,500.00 was withdrawn from the Foundation and deposited in the DBC General Budget Account. There was no authorization for the withdrawal or expenditure of Foundation funds. The committee desired that the record show that these funds should have been recovered from the DBC General Budget but because of the circumstances that the Convention is under due to the financial mismanagement of its funds it would be an unattainable burden for the Convention. Henry Kaelberer seconded the motion and it passed.
4. In September, 2002, the New Hope Baptist Church, Aberdeen, disbanded and left the Church Loan Fund with an unpaid loan balance of $40, 933.77. That amount remains on the books as the balance 12/31/2004. In recent months a group has began new start and they have been using the building and have invested materials and labor in the building. They have contacted Jim Hamilton through the Associational Missions Director Buck Hill requesting that the property be returned to the current congregation. Note: The title to the property passed into the possession of the Foundation on January 31, 2003. Debbie Holmes moved that the present congregation submit a statement of the expenditures incurred in refurbishing the building and grounds and that amount be deducted from the $40,933.77. The adjusted balance would be the amount to be paid by the church at the current prime rate. Motion was seconded and passed.
5. By consensus approved writing off $219.70 [Account 10-210] which had been on the books for several years.
6. From the period 2002-2004, $26,123.52 [Accts 10-1300 & 10-1330] as detailed in Exhibit C & D was paid from Foundation Funds. These expenses were not related to the Foundation. These were misappropriated from the Foundation. Bill Savery moved that the Dakota Baptist Convention be petitioned to reimburse these funds to the Foundation from the money Richard Farley is reimbursing the Convention. Motion was seconded by Debbie Holmes and approved.
7. The CD held at the Louisiana Employees Credit Union matured in March, 2005. The funds were returned to the Dakota Baptist Convention. Note: The funds of the Foundation, Church Loans and DBC were consolidated at the LA Credit Union, therefore, they were deposited with the Convention to be transferred (April 11, 2005) into their respective accounts: $21,690.19 to the Foundation Checking Account, $100,372.45 to the Church Loans Checking Account with $754.37 remaining with the DBC. The funds returned from the LA Credit Union also included $1,891.13 in earned interest. Debbie Holmes moved that the interest be prorated and distributed to each of the accounts. Note: That distribution was as follows: Foundation $333.97, Church Loans $1545.43 and DBC General Budget $11.73. In addition, after the distribution of $109,500.00 from Church Loans to the Foundation is processed, the funds not needed in the checking account be invested with the Southern Baptist Foundation. This motion was seconded by Henry Kaelberer and approved.

The committee was adjourned and closed with prayer led by Bruce Knight.

Minutes submitted by June Highlan.

Executive Director's Report Annual Meeting

"I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some." (1 Cor. 9:22b) These are the words of the Apostle Paul as he wrote to the Corinthian Church about being a servant to all. Six chapters earlier he addressed the carnality of the Corinthians. Now, he stirs them to be a servant to all that some might be won to Christ. He says this effort is "for the gospel's sake" in the next verse.

Well, we have certainly had our share of carnality as a convention. Now it's time to focus on being all things to all men that some might be saved for the Kingdom's sake! It's time to grow up! To leave the milk and move toward solid food! The Dakota Baptist Convention is young and in its infancy stage. Our role as leaders is to build a solid foundation that will allow for growth and maturity in the years to come. Our role is to facilitate Godly change that will position the Dakotas for God's blessing and favor. God has chosen us for such a time as this! Together, we will move beyond the carnality of our past and develop our people to become all things to all men. We will see a day when our churches are healthy! We will see a day when we are reproducing healthy new works! We will see a day when a servant spirit spreads across the Dakotas! We will see a day when we are on the cutting edge of ministry! We will see a day when we are identifying and training up indigenous leaders! We will see a day when the Dakotas is a model for emerging regions! We will see a day when we are sending teams to help others in North America and internationally! We will see a day when spiritual awakening spreads like fire across our prairies and people! Can you see it? I can! Look closer! Now look through the transforming power of Philippians 3:13-14! Can you see it now?

This Annual Meeting will chart our course and determine our focus for the next five years as we adopt our strategy plan and structure. The future development of our convention may depend on how well we cooperate together to implement this ministry plan. I pray we will not take this responsibility lightly, but rather sense God's leadership in all that we do.

I also want to say a word about the great staff at the DBC, which includes our associational missionaries and church planters. It is a joy to serve you along side of such dedicated men and women. I appreciate their hard work, sense of calling, and kingdom mentality. They sharpen and inspire me to do better. We continue to build team, and it is beginning to show in the results.

Following is my field schedule for 2005.

Jim Hamilton

Missions Report
Dakota Baptist Convention
John Guillott

As I have driven across the Dakotas this year, I have tried to envision what a new congregation would look like in many of the communities where do not have churches. Or, what would new congregations look like in communities where we already have churches. As I have had the opportunity to share these thoughts with the people I work with here in the Dakotas and our national agency, the North American Mission Board, I have seen glimpses of excitement of what the Dakota Baptist Convention could look like in the coming years. New congregations bring new life – new congregations bring new ministries to our communities – new congregations are light houses of hope in people's lives.

September 19-20 – in partnership with North American Mission Board and Siouxland & Heartland Associations a "Vision Tour of Sioux Falls/Brookings Area" was conducted. There were 18 potential partners from out of state and 12 local participants there to see and talk about the need of new congregations in that area. Some commitments have been made by the out of state partners to help us with existing congregations plus new works.

This year I have been working with or in process of working with several associations in calling Associational Missionaries. John Miller, former Church Development Director for our convention, has changed roles and now serves as the Associational Missionary for Central Baptist Association. John and Berna Miller were commissioned earlier this month by the North American Mission Board. Presently, I am working with Northland and South Valley Associations to determine how associational leadership can best serve eastern North Dakota.

I look forward to the implementation of our new strategy plan that is being presented to the messengers at this annual meeting. We have a tremendous challenge before us – and this strategy gives us an excellent road map to follow. We have a different convention than we had a year ago – and as we work together – we will be different a year from now. I truly believe there is a sense of growing excitement for planting new congregations all across the Dakotas. Some of these new congregations will be in our towns and cities trying to reach a broad range of people. Some will be targeted for specific people groups – reaching a segment of our population that is yet to be impacted with the gospel.

Thank you for the privilege of serving as your "Starting Churches Team Leader." We have a wonderful opportunity before us to change the Dakotas for the kingdom's sake. I look forward to the coming year to see the changes that God will bring to us and through us.

Report to the Executive Board

August 27, 2005

*John M. Miller
Church Development Director
Dakota Baptist Convention*

This is the last report that I will give as the Church Development Director of the Dakota Baptist Convention. I shared some of the information in my report at the February 2005 meeting. I look forward to a more hands-on-partnership with congregation leaders in Central Association.

I commend Myron Grueneich to you. He is already serving in a very effective way as Strategy Coordinator. I eagerly anticipate Myron's leadership in a New Way in a New Day.

A Transition From This Position

This report is a departure from the traditional report of activity that the Church Development Director has been involved with the last few months. I will take a personal privilege to share what God is doing with me at the present time.

We are not capable of anticipating the calling and appointments God has for each of us. I would never have dreamed or anticipated that I would serve on the staff of a state convention fifteen (15) years. I have seen God at work in the lives of many people during this time. He has been busy doing what He has purposed. It often seems like a puzzle at the time. However, at a later time, when we take a backward look we can see His purpose unfold.

I have transitioned from State Convention work to become the Associational Missionary for Central Baptist Association as of August 1, 2005. I thank Jim Hamilton, Executive Director, John Guillott, Missions Director, Myron Grueneich, Strategy Coordinator and Donna Guillott, WMU/Women's Ministry Director/Office Manager for their help in facilitating this change.

I wish to thank the Executive Board for giving me the opportunity of serving churches in North and South Dakota. It has been wonderful, tiring, exalting, discouraging, satisfying and demanding.

Berna will continue to coordinate the Annual Church Profile for DBC, as well as do the administrative work for the Association.

Pray for both of us to be all that God wants us to be as Servant Leaders in Central Association.

Stay tuned to Central Association. I expect God will give us some wonderful surprises. Pray that I will be "Strong and Courageous" as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

Report to the Executive Board
Myron Grueneich
DBC Strategic Coordinator/Church Health and Leadership Development
August, 2005

Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.

These were the words of Paul to the Ephesians elders as he left for a new ministry. Paul uses two words (flock – shepherd) that strike dear to my heart. Having been a shepherd with a flock of real (wooly) sheep for 29 years, I understand the depth of what Paul is saying. Now working with a larger flock, (God's flock) I am amazed at the vastness of the calling.

There are many threats to the flock. It seems the flock is fragile and vulnerable. It seems the flock is easily led, easily deceived, easily divided, and easily enticed. So God places shepherds to oversee. God has placed in me a shepherd's heart. So I wrestle with some of the same things Paul did. I ask God shepherd questions.

Father, how can we do real ministry and not just programs?
Father, what will it take to see spiritual awakening in the Dakotas?
Father, how can the state convention office touch lives more effectively?
Father, how can we be the shepherds you want us to be?

I sense God is setting the stage for something special for the Dakotas. I see him calling people to himself in a profound way. I see pastors and churches intentionally and passionately growing God's kingdom. I see lay people with a growing desire to serve God in a new and vibrant way. I see new leadership seeking mentorship and training. I see a heart for prayer and repentance. I see the brethren loving one another. God is growing us in new and exciting ways!

God has called me as part of our state team to resource and support local and associational ministry. We have awesome and untapped resources available from IMB, NAMB, LifeWay, other ministry partnerships, and other state conventions. But all of the resources are valuable if they touch the local church's unique needs and ministry. Our ultimate goal is not training but equipping, doing not just knowing. We need to move every believer and every church to the next level.

I approach state convention ministry from the perspective that our reach is limited. It is impossible for one person to effectively serve 90 churches in all the areas of strengthening ministry. Enlisting other leaders who possess a passion and surrender to God's call to grow healthy churches and leadership will anchor my strategy. Those who work the closest to the church have the greatest influence so we will make every effort to partner with those God has already called to serve.

I have oversight in four major areas as blueprinted in our Strategic Plan. The first is discipleship. I believe we must do a better job of growing "Christ-followers". Much of the challenge of today's church is to grow mature believers. Becoming saved is the beginning not the end. If we had as many true disciples as we do baptisms we would be a completely different convention today. The back door seems as big as the front door. Multiplying true disciples of Jesus Christ will affect spiritual renewal in a profound way. Every church needs an intentional plan to grow mature believers.

Secondly, we need to foster selfless ministry. We need to mobilize more people to serve in relevant ministry across the Dakotas. Our churches need to be filled with people who understand their giftedness and calling and respond in meaningful service. Every ministry must stand on its own merit and should be results oriented.

Thirdly, we must develop and nurture current and new leadership. Our future hinges on the development of pastoral and lay leadership. One vital component of moving churches to the next level is the growth of our leadership. We must follow Christ's example and invest in the lives of a few who will in turn reach the crowds. We must also work to stabilize and support those faithful servants God has placed in leadership.

Lastly, but at least equally important is integrity. We need to walk in integrity. Dakota people care about this vital issue. It is apparent that we know what we should do but have not always done it. Dr. Hamilton has taken steps to restore integrity to the state office. But integrity does not start or end there. Pastors, churches, lay leaders and associations across the Dakotas deal with integrity issues. There are stewardship issues, moral issues, ministry issues, and relationship issues. Power struggles, gossip and false witness, leadership failures, and marriage and family issues challenge our integrity at every level of the DBC. We need to permit others to hold us accountable to Biblical principles of integrity in a loving way. We need to shake off the old way of doing things when it lacks integrity. God cannot bless that which is contrary to His character.

I am humbled by this opportunity to serve in this way. I am still working on being a little more "Southern" but I confess I am really a hometown Dakota guy. I count it a privilege to work alongside so many Godly men and women who serve our Lord so graciously and faithfully. I am grateful for Dr. Hamilton's leadership and my fellow staff. I am blessed to serve this "flock" for this time.

Once a shepherd, always a shepherd!

In Christ,

Myron Grueneich

Dakota Baptist Convention
Mission Education Report
Donna Guillott, Director
October 2005

The theme for Woman's Missionary Union for 2005 – 2006 is Christ Followers. As Christians we should all follow in the steps of Jesus as we are called to be a missionary wherever we are – at home, across the street, across the nation or around the world.

This has been an exciting year. I have had the opportunity to speak in several churches and new Bible studies and mission education groups have been started across the Dakotas. I hope to see more in the coming year.

This year we had about 60 at the Native American Women's Retreat. Alpha Goombi, a North American Mission Board missionary, serving in Nebraska, was our speaker this year and she will be our music leader next year. Rose Igancio, a Navajo from New Mexico will be our featured speaker in 2006. Hamilton Baptist Church in Virginia helped provide funds for this retreat and plan to help again next year. They have invited me to come and speak at their mission night in November. So, John and I will be traveling to Virginia November 4. They have been involved in reservation work for a number of years. I am grateful for their faithful partnership.

There were about 20 at the Acteen Impact which was held in Bismarck. Tony Stottlemire, Church Planter in Grand Forks, built a cross that the girls and leaders carried to the State Capitol. While at the capitol the girls and leaders shared the gospel through song, prayer and creative movement. Thank you, Capitol Heights Baptist Church of Bismarck for hosting the Acteens during that week.

RefresHer was held at Camp Judson in Keystone, SD this year. We had 58 in attendance. Wanda Lee, National WMU Executive Director was our speaker. She brought Bible studies on being Christ Followers. Many ladies shared with me personally how much they enjoyed the weekend.

Our Senior Adult Retreat this year was built around Acts 1:8. Dude Garrett, pastor of Temple Baptist Church in Fargo, led the Bible study based on this scripture. Fennel Guillott, John's father, lead the music. We had a wonderful time of Bible study, music, fellowship and relaxation.

It is a joy and a privilege to serve our Lord Jesus Christ and to serve the churches of the Dakota Baptist Convention I am thankful God is allowing me to serve in the Dakotas.
